

Eileen Penman Singing Workshop

Saturday 5th June 2010
St. Margaret's Hall, Forfar
10am - 4pm
(Registration from 9.30am)

£18 (£14 concession & AF members)

Eileen Penman is a singer and songwriter from Edinburgh. As well as being a solo performer at folk clubs and political events, she has for many years led choirs, workshops and community groups. She began teaching Scots song with the Adult Learning Project in 1990 and from there went on to found Stairheid Gossip and the Wildfire Women's Community Choir.

Stairheid Gossip have performed at folk clubs and festivals and last year had three very successful Fringe performances. Eileen is always in demand to lead singing groups and has also taught on the Traditional Music Degree Course at the RSAMD in Glasgow. She has a wide repertoire and will teach a varied workshop including Scots traditional and other song genres from around the world.

To book a place, please call 07842 227202 or book online:
www.angusfolk.org

Organised By:

angusfolk

Directions to St Margaret's Church, Forfar.

St. Margaret's Church,
West High St,
Forfar,
Angus,
DD8 1BJ

↑ To Aberdeen

↓ To Dundee

↓ To Dundee

From the A90 Dundee
To Aberdeen dualcarriageway, take the
A929 junction to Forfar.
There is a McDonalds
'restaurant' at this junction.

Follow Glamis Road
straight in to the town until you reach the traffic lights at the end of West High Street.

St. Margaret's Church is straight ahead over these lights, on the left, between the bank and the post office. However, to park your car, turn left at the traffic lights and the first right, signposted for the Myre Car Park. This is a free car park and you can leave your car all day. From the car park, a small lane / steps leads up the side of the Guide Hall to St. Margaret's Church. At the top of the steps, opposite the postal depot, the entrance to the church hall is the first gate on your right.