

Karine Polwart Singing Workshop

Saturday 31st

October 2009

St. Margaret's Hall, Forfar

10am - 4pm

(Registration from 9.30am)

£18 (£14 concession & AF members)

Karine Polwart is four times winner at the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards and one of Scotland's most popular folk singers and songwriters. In addition to her solo work, she's one third of a cappella trio Grace, Hewat, Polwart and has collaborated with musicians as diverse as alt folk balladeer King Creosote, bluegrass star Tim O'Brien and The Scottish Chamber Orchestra. Karine has experience teaching vocal harmony workshops for community groups, youth projects and at music festivals, and is also an occasional tutor for the Scottish Music course at the Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama and on the folk degree course at Newcastle University.

Come along and lend your voice to vibrant vocal harmony arrangements of folk, roots and contemporary songs. All teaching will be by ear. No music theory required. Age 12 years and over.

Directions to St Margaret's Church, Forfar.

St. Margaret's Church,
West High St,
Forfar,
Angus,
DD8 1BJ

From the A90 Dundee
To Aberdeen dualcarriageway, take the
A929 junction to Forfar.
There is a McDonalds
'restaurant' at this
junction.

Follow Glamis Road
straight in to the town
until you reach the traffic lights at the end of West High Street.

St. Margaret's Church is straight ahead over these lights, on the left, between the bank and the post office. However, to park your car, turn left at the traffic lights and the first right, signposted for the Myre Car Park. This is a free car park and you can leave your car all day. From the car park, a small lane / steps leads up the side of the Guide Hall to St. Margaret's Church. At the top of the steps, opposite the postal depot, the entrance to the church hall is the first gate on your right.
